

The beekeepers from The Republic of Bashkortostan arrived in Knyszyn Forest Landscape Park

On 11th of April 2013 the beekeepers from The Republic of Bashkortostan arrived in Knyszyn Forest Landscape Park. They came to Supraśl Forest division in connection with the project called „Rerun of traditional forest beekeeping in area of Regional Directorate of State Forests in Białystok. Following forest divisions have joined the project: Augustów as a co-ordinator, Browsk, Maskulińskie and Supraśl.

Pines' selection. Photo: KFLP

The aim of the actions is to rerun traditional beekeeping in 4 primeval forests: Augustów, Białowieża, Knyszyn and Pisz in cooperation with local beekeepers. The beekeepers from The Republic of Bashkortostan came that day to the old pine tree stand by Łaźnie village in Knyszyn Forest Landscape Park to mark old trees which will be used later for beehives establishing.

Marking of pines. Photo: Arch. KFLP

